ELECTION RESULTS FROM THE RA

At the 2010 Spring RA President Michael Dossie, Bellaire, was elected to represent EOEА on the OEA Board of Directors.

The following unit representatives were also elected: Melissa Shamel, Coshocton County, Renée Spiker, Muskingum County A, Sandy Carpenter, Noble County and Jill Parks, Noble County alternate.

The proposed changes to the Constitution and Bylaws were also approved. These changes replaced “MR/DD” with “DD”, changed “school support” to “educational support”.

WHERE DO YOU FIT IN?

What do you join when you pay your dues? First, you are a member of your Local Association that represents you with your school district.

Next, you are a member of your District Association (EOEA) that unites 41 local associations and provides training and financial support to your local association.

Next, you are a member the State Association (OEA) that provides support for negotiations, liability protection, and legal support.

And finally, you are one of the 3.2 million members of the National Association (NEA). NEA ensures that members’ will be heard in Congress and provides OEA with the UniServ program.

AUGUST WORKSHOPS AND PICNIC

Fifty-three members attended the workshops held August 10, 2010. The annual Local Treasurers’ workshop presented by OEA Secretary/ Treasurer Jim Timlin allowed those attending to meet one of the criteria for the OEA Fiscal Fitness Award.

Two members won free OEA dues for 2010-11. They were: Gail McGreevy – Mid-East EA and Sue Sheck – Coshocton County Career Center EA.

and grievance processing. Alison Roberts lead the local constitution workshop that stressed the importance of local constitutions and bylaws. Amy Yevincy and Hank Musilli lead the grievance and fair representation workshop.

Following the workshops the annual Local Leaders Picnic was held at the St. Clairsville Park. Several guests from across the state attended.
